LARGEST CIRCULATION: FOR PRESI EST IN 1864,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

ANDREW JOHNSON. OF TENNESSEE.

WE had the pleasure, on Saturday evening of addressing a large Union meeting in Rockville, Parke county. We believe there is not another county in the District in which the Union organization is so perfect as it is there. Every township in the county thoroughly organized, and each man is at work as if the final result depended upon his ection of the war. efforts. Parke will give a majority this Fall of nearly nine hundred votes.

THE St. Louis Democrat says that it is an "undoubted fact that, that city, just now, comes nearer to being a wholly loyal city, than at any time since the rebellion began. It has been the case that at certain periods and localities here, little knots of 'secesh, and 'rebel sympathizers' could be seen upon the streets with their heads together, and in a very confidential way engaged in discussing the proceedings of the last meeting of the O. A. K.'s, or detailing the latest sensation by the grape-vine line. But now the haunts of these men are vacant, save that now and then a solitary individual stops in them a short time, apparently from the force of retires. The explanation is, not that disloys but that a large number of our Secessionists are at Chicago. They have gone to the Lake shore to meet their friends. It is re- Democracy in 1862, and it infamously becrats' at Chicago. As for a crowd being there, it certainly might be leoked for from the number of parties leaving here in the direction, but 'rebels' and 'Copperheads' are the most familiar names by which these parties have been known in St. Louis "

BELIVERD BEFORE THE Union District Convention

Cambridge, O. Aug 16, 1864, their arms.

Gentlemen of the Union Convention: I gratefully acknowledge the honor of the nomination for Congres which you have tendered me, and accept it, in the belief that i is the expressed will of the loyal people of the 16th Congressional District of Ohio. T gentlemen, you had put in nomination any other loval citizen for the responsible position, such nomines would have received my cordial and e-rnest support. In this great strug to for the life of the Republic every man ab u d forego all perthe sake of the common defense, and public tion or condition, for the success-the plete success, by arms and laws in the field and the Legislative Councils, of the cause of the Union and the Constitution To this and I have given a constant support to the operation and emport who, for the cake of all supplies? the Union, are for the union of all parties and who can be aside the faded uniform of the Republic by land and sea.

Of the ultimate success of this sacred cause -the cause of our common country-I bade not a jot of heart or hope. The virtue and valor of the people will save from overthrow our matchless American tabric of civil polity construed by those grand men whom God taught to build for glory and for beauty.
